I. BUREAU DIRECTIVE:

Probation & Parole Bureau employees will enforce the provisions of the Montana Code Annotated regarding the driving requirements for Felony DUI Offenders being supervised by the Department of Corrections. This procedure includes judgments on DUI offenses committed prior to July 1, 2001, and other offenses wherein the Probation & Parole Officer authorizes and/or makes recommendations on driving privileges. Offenders may be granted permission to operate a motor vehicle only after significant advances in rehabilitation and recovery have been demonstrated.

II. DEFINITIONS:

None.

III. PROCEDURES:

- A. Montana law grants Probation & Parole Officers (Officers) the authority to permit felony DUI offenders and other offenders restricted by a court judgment to operate a motor vehicle. Montana law requires all felony DUI offenders allowed to drive to equip their vehicle with an alcohol-specific ignition interlock system, which shall be paid for by the offender. This system may be required for other offenses by court order.
- B. Eligibility criteria to obtain driving privileges:
 - 1. Offender has successfully completed the ACT Program.
 - 2. Offender has had no drug/alcohol violations for at least 2 years while under the supervision of the Probation & Parole Bureau.
 - 3. Offender has demonstrated sobriety and continued investment into his/her treatment program.
 - 4. Offender is eligible to receive a driver's license from Montana Department of Justice, Motor Vehicle Division.
 - 5. Offender is in compliance with all court ordered conditions.
 - 6. Offender can identify and justify the need to have his/her license restored.
 - 7. Offender has the financial ability to pay for the alcohol specific interlock device costs.

Procedure No.: 60-6	Section 60: Sign-Up Procedures & Supervision Standards	Page 2 of 3
Subject: DUI OFFENDER AND OFFENDER WITH RESTRICTED DRIVING PRIVILEGES / AUTHORIZATION TO DRIVE

An Officer, with the authorization of the Probation & Parole Bureau Chief (Bureau Chief), may grant conditional or limited permission to drive, depending on the risks posed by an individual offender and on the offender's needs as articulated in #6 above. For example, driving may be limited to going to and from work, doctor's appointments and other necessary errands only. Additional conditions or limitations may be imposed as circumstances warrant. All conditions and limitations must be in writing and given to the offender, with a copy for the probation file.

Driving privileges may be withdrawn at any time if the offender's circumstances change, they violate probation, or fail to follow established driving criteria.

PROCEDURE:

RESPONSIBILITY:
